2. Subrule 3 (6) of the Regulation is amended by striking out “or” at the end of clause (e), by adding “or” at the end of clause (f) and by adding the following clause:

(g) subrule 43 (18) (confirmation of binding judicial dispute resolution hearing).

3. Clause 14 (11) (e) of the Regulation is amended by striking out subclauses (i) and (ii) and substituting the following:

- (i) delivering it to the court office,
- (ii) sending it to the court office by email, or
- (iii) submitting it through the Justice Services Online website.

4. Rule 43 of the Regulation is revoked and the following substituted:RULE 43: BINDING JUDICIAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF JUSTICE*Binding judicial dispute resolution*Definition

43. (1) In this rule,

“binding judicial dispute resolution hearing” means a hearing held under this rule.

Purpose

- (2) The purpose of this rule is to establish a binding judicial dispute resolution process in order to,
 - (a) allow parties to choose a summary process as an alternative to a trial; and
 - (b) permit a judge to, in a single hearing,
 - (i) assist parties in resolving issues on a final basis on consent, and
 - (ii) finally determine, in a summary manner, any issues that are not resolved.

Conflict

- (3) In the event of a conflict between this rule and any other rule, this rule prevails to the extent of the conflict.

Application

(4) Subject to subrule (5), this rule applies in cases in the Superior Court of Justice, including cases in the Family Court of the Superior Court of Justice, in any municipality that is indicated on the Ontario Courts website as having been designated by the Chief Justice of the Superior Court of Justice for the purposes of this rule.

Excluded cases

- (5) This rule does not apply with respect to cases,
 - (a) under the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017;
 - (b) to which rule 37 (interjurisdictional support orders) applies; or

- (c) to which rule 37.2 (international child abduction) applies.

Preconditions for requesting hearing

(6) The parties to a case may request a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing in accordance with this rule if each party is satisfied that,

- (a) the case does not involve significant credibility issues that require cross-examination;
- (b) the oral evidence of a witness who is not a party is not required; and
- (c) it is reasonable to expect that the issues can be resolved or determined in a summary manner.

Request for hearing

(7) In order to request a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, each party shall serve and file,

- (a) a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing request and consent in Form 43 or 43A; and
- (b) a motion form (Form 14B).

Same

(8) Despite clause (7) (b), if a party is serving and filing documents for the purposes of a conference or other hearing, the party may file the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing request and consent form together with the documents the party is filing for the conference or other hearing, instead of filing it together with a motion form.

When request may be made

(9) The parties may request a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing in accordance with this rule at any stage in the case.

Order for hearing

(10) The court may, on the request of the parties in accordance with this rule and subject to subrule (9), order a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing.

Limitation on ordering hearing

(11) The court shall not order a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing if the conditions listed in subrule (6) are not met, unless the court determines that a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing is appropriate in the circumstances.

Withdrawal of consent

(12) A party may not withdraw their consent to a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing once the hearing has been ordered by the court, except with every other party's written consent or the court's permission.

Required documents

(13) Each party shall, within the time specified in subrule (15), serve and file the following documents, unless the court orders otherwise:

1. An affidavit (Form 43B or 14A) that meets the following requirements:
 - i. The affidavit, excluding exhibits, is not longer than 12 pages.
 - ii. Any exhibits to the affidavit, not including any document referred to in paragraphs 2 to 12, do not total more than 10 pages in length, unless the court orders otherwise.
2. A draft order setting out the relief the party is seeking.
3. Any relevant agreements, minutes of settlement or court orders.
4. Any offer to settle that has not been withdrawn.
5. If the case involves a claim for support but not a property claim or a claim for exclusive possession of the matrimonial home and its contents, an updated financial statement (Form 13), together with an updated certificate of financial disclosure (Form 13A).
6. If the case involves a property claim or a claim for exclusive possession of the matrimonial home and its contents, updated versions of the financial statement (Form 13.1), net family property statement (Form 13B) and comparison of net family property statements (Form 13C), together with an updated certificate of financial disclosure (Form 13A).
7. If the case involves a claim respecting decision-making responsibility, parenting time or contact with respect to a child, an updated affidavit in Form 35.1 and, if applicable, an updated affidavit in Form 35.1A.
8. If the issues to be dealt with at the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing include the amount or duration of support, details about what the amount and duration should be, including calculations.

9. If the issues to be dealt with at the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing include the calculation of support arrears, a statement of money owed in Form 26 or, if applicable, a statement of arrears in the form used by the Director of the Family Responsibility Office.
10. If the issues to be dealt with at the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing include the amount of special or extraordinary expenses within the meaning of section 7 of the child support guidelines, proof of the amount in dispute.
11. If the issues to be dealt with at the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing include a property claim or a claim for exclusive possession of the matrimonial home and its contents, any supporting documents, including any reports of an expert or other professional relating to those issues.
12. If the issues to be dealt with at the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing include a claim for decision-making responsibility, parenting time or contact with respect to a child, any reports of an expert or other professional relating to those issues.

Same, experts' reports

(14) Rules 20.2 (expert opinion evidence) and 20.3 (court-appointed experts) do not apply with respect to the reports required by paragraphs 11 and 12 of subrule (13).

Timelines

- (15) The documents shall be served and filed not later than,
 - (a) 20 days before the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, for documents filed by the applicant or, in the case of a motion to change a final order or agreement under rule 15, the party making the motion; and
 - (b) 10 days before the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, for documents filed by the respondent or, in the case of a motion to change a final order or agreement under rule 15, the party responding to the motion.

Reply affidavit

(16) The applicant or party making the motion may, not later than five days before the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, serve and file an affidavit (Form 14A) that is not longer than four pages replying to any new matters raised by the respondent or party responding to the motion in their affidavit.

Affidavit standards

(17) The portions of an affidavit that are completed by a party shall be typed or written legibly, with double spaces between the lines, and with characters of at least 12 point size.

Confirmation

- (18) Each party shall,
 - (a) give a copy of a confirmation of binding judicial dispute resolution hearing (Form 43C) to every other party using mail, fax, email or any other method, before giving the confirmation to the clerk under clause (b); and
 - (b) not later than 2 p.m. three days before the date of the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, give the clerk the confirmation of issues for binding judicial dispute resolution hearing by,
 - (i) delivering it to the court office,
 - (ii) sending it to the court office by email, or
 - (iii) submitting it through the Justice Services Online website.

Disclosure

- (19) In completing the confirmation of binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, the party shall,
 - (a) confirm that the party is satisfied that the disclosure provided by the other party is adequate for issues in the case to be resolved on consent by the parties or determined by a judge at the hearing; or
 - (b) if the party is not satisfied that the disclosure provided by the other party is adequate for issues in the case to be resolved on consent by the parties or determined by a judge at the hearing, explain why it would be unfair to proceed without the disclosure.

Presiding judge

- (20) A binding judicial dispute resolution hearing may be conducted by any judge, including a judge who,
 - (a) has conducted any previous step in the case, including a conference, despite subrule 17 (24) (settlement conference judge cannot hear issue); or
 - (b) has previous knowledge of any settlement discussions or offers in the case or has expressed a view of how the court might decide the case.

Conduct of hearing

(21) A binding judicial dispute resolution hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the following rules:

1. The hearing shall be conducted entirely under oath or affirmation.
2. No part of the hearing shall be conducted in the absence of a party or the party's lawyer.
3. In attempting to resolve issues at the hearing, the judge may express a view on how the court might decide the case.
4. The judge may, for the purpose of dealing with the case justly in accordance with subrule 2 (3), rely on any evidence filed for or received at the hearing that the judge considers credible and relevant, including any evidence received in the course of attempting to resolve an issue at the hearing.
5. Clause 18 (8) (b) (confidentiality of offer) does not apply with respect to the disclosure of information for the purposes of the hearing.
6. The hearing shall start with settlement discussions, with the judge assisting the parties to resolve issues on consent.
7. If an issue is resolved on consent and the judge approves the resolution, the issue shall be documented in the form of a court order that specifies the issues that were resolved on consent.
8. If the judge determines that settlement discussions are no longer likely to resolve any further issues, the judge may make a temporary or final decision on any unresolved issue.
9. For the purposes of paragraph 8, the judge may ask a party or witness any further questions in order to obtain further evidence, and a party may suggest questions to be asked, but there is no presumptive right of a party to call a witness to give evidence or to cross-examine.
10. The judge is not required to provide detailed reasons when determining an issue.

Failure to participate

(22) If a party fails to participate in a binding judicial dispute resolution hearing, the judge may conduct the hearing in accordance with subrule (21) based solely on the evidence filed for or received at the hearing.

Termination of hearing

(23) The judge may make an order ending the binding judicial dispute resolution hearing if the judge determines that the hearing is no longer appropriate in the circumstances, in which case,

- (a) the hearing shall be considered to have been a conference in the case for the purposes of these rules; and
- (b) the judge may give any directions respecting the continuation of the case under these rules that the judge considers necessary.

1. Clause 14 (11) (c) of Ontario Regulation 114/99 is revoked and the following substituted:

- (c) confer or make best efforts to confer orally or in writing with every other party about the issues that are in dispute in the motion, unless the party is prohibited from such communication by a court order or there is a risk of domestic violence by a party who is not represented by a lawyer;

2. Subrule 17 (18) of the Regulation is amended by striking out “subrule 24 (10)” in the portion before clause (a) and substituting “subrule 24 (1)”.3. (1) Rule 18 of the Regulation is amended by adding the following subrule:*Costs consequences

(12.1) The making, withdrawal, acceptance and rejection of offers are subject to the costs consequences provided for under rule 24.

(2) Subrules 18 (14) to (16) of the Regulation are revoked.4. Rule 24 of the Regulation is revoked and the following substituted:*RULE 24: COSTS*Costs*Deciding costs

- 24. (1) Promptly after dealing with a step in a case, the court shall, in a summary manner,
- (a) determine who, if anyone, is entitled to costs in relation to that step and set the amount of any costs; or
- (b) expressly reserve the decision on costs for determination at a later step in the case.

Same

(2) The failure of the court to act under subrule (1) in relation to a step in a case does not prevent the court from awarding costs in relation to the step at a later step in the case.

Entitlement to costs, presumption

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, there is a presumption that a successful party is entitled to the costs of a step in a case.

Divided success

- (4) If success in a step in a case is divided, the court may apportion costs as appropriate.

Child protection cases

- (5) Subrule (3) does not apply in a child protection case.

Government agency as party

(6) The court has discretion to award costs to or against a party that is a government agency, whether that party is successful or unsuccessful.

Unreasonable behaviour by successful party

(7) A successful party who has behaved unreasonably during a step in a case may be deprived of all or part of the party's own costs or ordered to pay all or part of the unsuccessful party's costs.

Same

- (8) In deciding whether a successful party has behaved unreasonably, the court may consider,

- (a) the party's behaviour in relation to the issues from the time they arose, including whether the party made an offer to settle;
- (b) the reasonableness of any offer the party made; and
- (c) any offer the party withdrew or did not accept.

Absent or unprepared party

(9) If a party is required to appear at a step in the case but does not do so, or appears but is not properly prepared to deal with the issues at the step or otherwise contributes to the step being unproductive, the court shall award costs against the party unless the court orders otherwise in the interests of justice.

Bad faith

(10) If a party has acted in bad faith, the court shall decide costs on a full recovery basis and shall order the party to pay them immediately.

Lawyer or other representative at fault

(11) If a party's lawyer or other representative has run up costs related to a step in a case without reasonable cause or has wasted costs, the court may, on motion or on its own initiative after giving the lawyer or representative an opportunity to be heard, make one or more of the following orders:

- 1. That the lawyer or representative shall not charge client fees or disbursements for work specified in the order.
- 2. That the lawyer or representative must repay any money that the party has already paid toward costs.
- 3. That the lawyer or representative must repay the party any costs that the party has been ordered to pay another party.
- 4. That the lawyer or representative must personally pay the costs of any party.
- 5. That a copy of the order be given to the party.

Failure to accept offer

(12) A party who makes an offer in relation to a step in a case is, unless the court orders otherwise, entitled to costs to the date the offer was served and full recovery of costs from that date to the conclusion of the step, if the following conditions are met:

- 1. If the offer relates to a motion, it is made at least one day before the motion date.
- 2. If the offer relates to a trial or the hearing of a step other than a motion, it is made at least seven days before the trial or hearing date.
- 3. The offer does not expire and is not withdrawn before the hearing starts.
- 4. The offer is not accepted.
- 5. The party who made the offer obtains an order that is as good as or better than the offer.

Same, burden of proof

(13) The burden of proof that the order is as good as or better than the offer to settle is on the party who claims the benefit of subrule (12).

Setting costs amounts

- (14) In setting the amount of costs in relation to a step in a case, the court may consider,
- (a) the reasonableness and proportionality of the following factors, as applicable, as they relate to the importance and complexity of the issues in the step:
 - (i) Each party's behaviour.
 - (ii) The time spent by each party.
 - (iii) Any written offers to settle, including offers that do not meet the conditions set out in subrule (12) or the requirements of rule 18.
 - (iv) Any legal fees, including the number of lawyers and their rates.
 - (v) Any expert witness fees, including the number of experts and their rates.
 - (vi) Any other expenses properly paid or payable; and
 - (b) any other relevant matter.

Supporting materials

(15) Any claim for costs respecting fees or expenses shall be supported by documentation satisfactory to the court.

Same, opposing party

(16) A party who opposes a claim for costs respecting fees or expenses shall provide documentation showing the party's own fees and expenses to the court and to the other party.

Requirement for parties to confer

(17) Before each step in a case, each party shall confer or make best efforts to confer orally or in writing with every other party with a view to settling costs, including the amount of costs, unless the party is prohibited from such communication by a court order or there is a risk of domestic violence by a party who is not represented by a lawyer.

Requirement for parties to prepare submissions

(18) For the purposes of subrule (1), each party shall, for each step in a case, be ready to,

- (a) make an oral submission as to costs in relation to that step; and
- (b) provide the court with the documentation required by subrules (15) and (16) as applicable.

If court requires written submissions

(19) If the court requires the parties to provide written submissions on costs with respect to a step in the case, the following rules apply, unless the court orders otherwise:

- 1. Each party shall serve and file a written submission on costs no later than 15 days after the court requires the written submissions.
- 2. A party may serve and file a responding written submission on costs, no later than 30 days after the court requires the written submissions.
- 3. A written submission shall be no longer than three pages or, if it relates to costs of a trial, five pages, not including the documentation required by subrules (15) and (16).
- 4. A written submission shall be typed or written legibly, with double spaces between the lines and characters of at least 12 point size, not including the documentation required by subrules (15) and (16).

Order for security for costs

(20) A judge may, on motion, make an order for security for costs that is just, based on one or more of the following factors:

- 1. A party habitually resides outside Ontario.
- 2. A party has an order against the other party for costs that remains unpaid, in the same case or another case.
- 3. A party is a corporation and there is good reason to believe it does not have enough assets in Ontario to pay costs.
- 4. There is good reason to believe that the case is a waste of time, a nuisance or an abuse of the court process, and that the party does not have enough assets in Ontario to pay costs.
- 5. A statute entitles the party to security for costs.

Amount and form of security

(21) The judge shall determine the amount of the security, its form and the method of giving it.

Effect of order for security

(22) Until the security has been given, a party against whom there is an order for security for costs may not take any step in the case, except to appeal from the order, unless the judge orders otherwise.

Failure to give security

(23) If the party does not give the security as ordered and, as a result, the judge makes an order dismissing the party's case or striking out the party's answer or any other document filed by the party, subrule (22) no longer applies.

Security may be changed

(24) The amount of the security, its form and the method of giving it may be changed by order at any time.

Payment to carry on case

(25) The court may make an order that a party pay an amount of money to another party to cover part or all of the expenses of carrying on the case, including a lawyer's fees.

5. Clause 38 (26) (b) of the Regulation is amended by striking out “subrule 24 (13)” and substituting “subrule 24 (20)”.

6. The rows for Forms 14C and 17F in the Table of Forms to the Regulation are amended by striking out “September 1, 2023” in the column titled “Date of Form” and substituting “September 24, 2024”.

(2) Les paragraphes 18 (14) à (16) du Règlement sont abrogés.4. La règle 24 du Règlement est abrogée et remplacée par ce qui suit :*RÈGLE 24 : DÉPENS*Dépens*Décision au sujet des dépens*24. (1) Promptement après s'être occupé d'une étape d'une cause, le tribunal, de façon sommaire :

- a) soit décide qui a droit, le cas échéant, aux dépens relatifs à cette étape et fixe le montant des dépens éventuels;
b) soit reporte de façon expresse la décision au sujet des dépens à une étape ultérieure de la cause.

Idem

(2) Le fait que le tribunal n'a pas pris une des mesures prévues au paragraphe (1) relativement à une étape d'une cause n'a pas pour effet de l'empêcher d'adjuger les dépens relatifs à l'étape à une étape ultérieure de la cause.

Droit aux dépens : présomption

(3) Sauf disposition contraire de la présente règle, il est présumé qu'une partie qui a gain de cause a droit aux dépens relatifs à une étape d'une cause.

Partage des dépens

(4) Si plus d'une partie a gain de cause dans une étape d'une cause, le tribunal peut répartir les dépens selon ce qui est approprié.

Causes portant sur la protection d'un enfant

(5) Le paragraphe (3) ne s'applique pas dans le cas d'une cause portant sur la protection d'un enfant.

Organisme gouvernemental en tant que partie

(6) Le tribunal a le pouvoir discrétionnaire d'adjuger les dépens à la partie qui est un organisme gouvernemental ou de l'y condamner, qu'elle ait ou non gain de cause.

Conduite déraisonnable de la partie qui a gain de cause

(7) La partie qui a gain de cause, mais qui s'est conduite de manière déraisonnable lors d'une étape d'une cause peut se voir priver de tout ou partie de ses dépens ou ordonner de payer tout ou partie des dépens de l'autre partie.

Idem

(8) Lorsqu'il décide si une partie qui a gain de cause s'est conduite de manière déraisonnable, le tribunal peut tenir compte de ce qui suit :

- a) la conduite de la partie en ce qui concerne les questions en litige à partir du moment où elles ont été soulevées, y compris la question de savoir si la partie a présenté une offre de règlement amiable;
- b) le caractère raisonnable de toute offre présentée par la partie;
- c) toute offre que la partie a retirée ou n'a pas acceptée.

Partie absente ou non préparée

(9) Si une partie est tenue de comparaître à une étape de la cause, mais qu'elle ne le fait pas, ou qu'elle comparaît, mais n'est pas suffisamment préparée pour traiter les questions en litige à cette étape, ou encore qu'elle contribue d'une autre façon à rendre l'étape improductive, le tribunal la condamne aux dépens, sauf s'il rend une ordonnance contraire dans l'intérêt de la justice.

Mauvaise foi

(10) Si une partie a agi de mauvaise foi, le tribunal fixe le montant des dépens de l'autre partie en fonction du recouvrement intégral des dépens et lui ordonne de les payer immédiatement.

Avocat ou autre représentant fautif

(11) Si l'avocat ou un autre représentant d'une partie a accumulé des frais liés à une étape d'une cause sans motif raisonnable ou a engagé des frais inutilement, le tribunal peut, sur motion ou de sa propre initiative, après avoir donné à l'avocat ou au représentant la possibilité d'être entendu, rendre une ou plusieurs des ordonnances suivantes :

- 1. Une ordonnance interdisant à l'avocat ou au représentant de facturer au client les honoraires ou les débours pour le travail précisé dans l'ordonnance.
- 2. Une ordonnance portant que l'avocat ou le représentant rembourse à la partie ce que celle-ci a déjà payé à l'égard des frais.

Dépens en cas de non-acceptation de l'offre

(12) La partie qui présente une offre relativement à une étape d'une cause a droit, sauf ordonnance contraire du tribunal, aux dépens à la date de la signification de l'offre et au recouvrement intégral des dépens à compter de cette date jusqu'à la fin de l'étape si les conditions suivantes sont remplies :

- 1. Si l'offre se rapporte à une motion, elle est présentée au moins un jour avant la date d'audition de celle-ci.
- 2. Si l'offre se rapporte à un procès ou à l'audition d'une étape autre qu'une motion, elle est présentée au moins sept jours avant la date du procès ou de l'audience.
- 3. L'offre n'expire pas et n'est pas retirée avant le début de l'audience.
- 4. L'offre n'est pas acceptée.
- 5. La partie qui a présenté l'offre obtient une ordonnance qui est aussi favorable, ou plus favorable, que l'offre.

Idem : fardeau de la preuve

(13) Le fardeau de prouver que l'ordonnance est aussi favorable, ou plus favorable, que l'offre de règlement amiable revient à la partie qui veut se prévaloir du paragraphe (12).

Fixation du montant des dépens

(14) Lorsqu'il fixe le montant des dépens relativement à une étape d'une cause, le tribunal peut tenir compte des éléments suivants :

- a) le caractère raisonnable et la proportionnalité des facteurs suivants, selon le cas, en ce qu'ils concernent l'importance et la complexité des questions en litige traitées à cette étape :
 - (i) la conduite de chaque partie,
 - (ii) le temps consacré par chaque partie,

- (iii) les offres écrites de règlement amiable, y compris celles qui ne remplissent pas les conditions énoncées au paragraphe (12) ou les exigences de la règle 18,
- (iv) les frais juridiques, y compris le nombre d'avocats et leurs tarifs,
- (v) les honoraires des experts, y compris le nombre d'experts et leurs tarifs,
- (vi) les autres dépenses dûment payées ou exigibles;

b) toute autre question pertinente.

Documents à l'appui

(15) Toute demande de dépens relative aux frais, honoraires ou dépenses doit être appuyée par des documents jugés suffisants par le tribunal.

Idem : partie adverse

(16) La partie qui conteste une demande de dépens relative aux frais, honoraires ou dépenses fournit, au tribunal et à l'autre partie, des documents faisant état de ses propres frais, honoraires et dépenses.

Obligation pour les parties de s'entretenir

(17) Avant chaque étape d'une cause, chaque partie s'entretient ou fait tous les efforts possibles pour s'entretenir oralement ou par écrit avec chacune des autres parties en vue de régler les dépens à l'amiable, y compris leur montant, sauf si une ordonnance du tribunal interdit à la partie de communiquer ainsi ou s'il y a un risque de violence familiale de la part d'une partie qui n'est pas représentée par un avocat.

Obligation pour les parties de préparer des observations

(18) Pour l'application du paragraphe (1), chaque partie se tient prête, en vue de chaque étape d'une cause, à faire ce qui suit :

- a) présenter des observations orales quant aux dépens se rapportant à cette étape;
- b) fournir au tribunal les documents exigés par les paragraphes (15) et (16), selon ce qui s'applique.

Observations écrites exigées par le tribunal

(19) Si le tribunal exige que les parties fournissent des observations écrites quant aux dépens à l'égard d'une étape de la cause, les règles suivantes s'appliquent, sauf ordonnance contraire du tribunal :

1. Chaque partie signifie et dépose des observations écrites quant aux dépens au plus tard 15 jours après que le tribunal a exigé les observations écrites.
2. Une partie peut signifier et déposer des observations écrites à titre de réponse quant aux dépens, au plus tard 30 jours après que le tribunal a exigé les observations écrites.
3. Les observations écrites ne doivent pas dépasser trois pages ou, si elles concernent les dépens d'un procès, cinq pages, à l'exclusion des documents exigés par les paragraphes (15) et (16).
4. Les observations écrites doivent être tapées ou écrites à la main lisiblement à double interligne et avec des caractères d'un corps d'au moins 12 points, à l'exclusion des documents exigés par les paragraphes (15) et (16).

Ordonnance de cautionnement pour dépens

(20) Un juge peut, sur motion, rendre une ordonnance de cautionnement pour dépens qui est équitable en se fondant sur un ou plusieurs des facteurs suivants :

1. La partie réside habituellement à l'extérieur de l'Ontario.
2. La partie a obtenu, dans la même cause ou dans une autre, une ordonnance condamnant l'autre partie aux dépens et ceux-ci demeurent impayés.
3. La partie est une société et il existe de bonnes raisons de croire qu'elle ne possède pas suffisamment d'éléments d'actif en Ontario pour payer les dépens.
4. Il existe de bonnes raisons de croire que la cause constitue une perte de temps, une source de désagrément ou un recours abusif au tribunal et que la partie ne possède pas suffisamment d'éléments d'actif en Ontario pour payer les dépens.
5. Une loi accorde à la partie le droit d'obtenir un cautionnement pour dépens.

Montant et forme du cautionnement

(21) Le juge fixe le montant du cautionnement, sa forme et son mode de versement.

Effet de l'ordonnance de cautionnement

(22) Tant que le cautionnement n'est pas versé, la partie contre qui une ordonnance de cautionnement pour dépens a été rendue ne peut entreprendre une autre étape de la cause, à l'exception d'un appel de l'ordonnance, sauf ordonnance contraire du juge.

Omission de verser le cautionnement

(23) Si la partie ne verse pas le cautionnement ordonné et que, en conséquence, le juge rend une ordonnance rejetant sa cause ou radiant sa défense ou tout autre document qu'elle a déposé, alors le paragraphe (22) ne s'applique plus.

Modification du cautionnement

(24) Le montant du cautionnement, sa forme et son mode de versement peuvent être modifiés par ordonnance en tout temps.

Païement pour la conduite de la cause

(25) Le tribunal peut rendre une ordonnance exigeant qu'une partie paie une somme à une autre partie pour couvrir tout ou partie des dépenses engagées pour conduire la cause, y compris les honoraires d'un avocat.

5. L'alinéa 38 (26) b) du Règlement est modifié par remplacement de «paragraphe 24 (13)» par «paragraphe 24 (20)» à la fin de l'alinéa.

6. Les rangées des formules 14C et 17F du tableau des formules du Règlement sont modifiées par remplacement de «1^{er} septembre 2023» dans la colonne intitulée «Date de la formule» par «24 septembre 2024».
