Ontario Highway Transport Board

Periodically, temporary applications are filed with the Board. Details of these applications can be made available at anytime to any interested parties by calling (416) 326-6732.

The following are applications for extra-provincial and public vehicle operating licenses filed under the Motor Vehicle Transport Act, 1987, and the Public Vehicles Act. All information pertaining to the applicant i.e. business plan, supporting evidence, etc. is on file at the Board and is available upon request.

Any interested person who has an economic interest in the outcome of these applications may serve and file an objection within 29 days of this publication. The objector shall:

1. complete a Notice of Objection Form,
2. serve the applicant with the objection,
3. file a copy of the objection and provide proof of service of the objection on the applicant with the Board,
4. pay the appropriate fee.

Serving and filing an objection may be effected by hand delivery, mail, courier or facsimile. Serving means the date received by a party and filing means the date received by the Board.

LES LIBELLÉS DES DEMANDES PUBLIÉES CI-DESSOUS SONT AUSSI DISPONIBLES EN FRANÇAIS SUR DEMANDE.

Pour obtenir de l'information en français, veuillez communiquer avec la Commission des transports routiers au 416-326-6732.

APPENDIX SERVICE GUARANTEES

Definitions

1. In this Appendix,

“Act” means the Vital Statistics Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. V.4

“address” with respect to a person, means the physical location of a building where it is possible for the person to accept service of a document, but does not include a post office box;

“business day” means any day other than Saturday, Sunday or a holiday;

“premium issuance of a document” means the issuance of a document within an expedited time frame, for which the fee payable to the Registrar General includes a surcharge in addition to the fee payable for regular issuance of the document;

“regular issuance of a document” means the issuance of a document that is not premium issuance of the document.

Birth Documents

2. (1) No fees are payable by an applicant for the following documents with respect to the birth of a person registered in Ontario who is living at the time when the applicant applies for the document if the conditions set out in subsection (2) are met:

1. A birth certificate for the person or a replacement of the certificate.
2. A certified copy of a registration of birth for the person or a replacement for the certified copy.

(2) The following are the conditions for when a fee is not payable by the applicant with respect to any of the birth documents described in subsection (1):

1. The applicant applied for the document by submitting an application on the website on the Internet that the Registrar General maintains for the purpose of receiving the application.
2. At the time that the Registrar General received the application for the document, the birth was registered with the Registrar General under the Act and the registration was available in electronic format.
3. The Registrar General is satisfied that the applicant was entitled under the Act to apply for the document.
4. The application for the document was complete and accurate at the time that the Registrar General received the application.
5. In the case of an application for premium issuance of the document, the applicant applied for the Registrar General to deliver the document to an address in Canada.
6. If the Registrar General under section 45.1 of the Act required a guarantor for the application and made a reasonable attempt to contact the guarantor within a period of 10 business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for regular issuance of the document, or within a period of two business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for premium issuance of the document, the guarantor verified, within the applicable period, that he or she met the criteria for being a guarantor, as set out in section 63.1 of Regulation 1094 of the Revised Regulations of Ontario, 1990 (General) made under the Act.
7. The Registrar General did not, within 15 business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for regular issuance of the document, prepare the document that the applicant applied for and send it to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application.
8. The Registrar General did not, within five business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for premium issuance of the document prepare the document that the applicant applied for and make an attempt to deliver it to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.
9. The applicant who applied for the document has applied for a refund of the fee paid for the document by submitting an application on the website on the Internet described in paragraph 1 by no earlier than 16 business days after the Registrar General received the application and no later than 30 business days after the Registrar General either:
 - (a) sent the regular issuance document to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application, or
 - (b) delivered the premium issuance document to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.
10. The application for the refund was complete and accurate at the time that the Registrar General received the application.

(3) This section does not apply if, for the reasons of impairment specified in section 4, the Registrar General did not:

- (a) within 15 business days of receiving an application for regular issuance of a document described in subsection (1), prepare the document and send it to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application; or
- (b) within five business days of receiving an application for premium issuance of a document described in subsection (1), prepare the document and make an attempt to deliver it to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.

Marriage and Death Documents

3. (1) No fees are payable by an applicant for the following documents with respect to a marriage or death registered in Ontario with respect to a person if the conditions set out in subsection (2) are met:

1. A marriage certificate for the person or a replacement of the certificate.
2. A certified copy of a registration of marriage for the person or a replacement for the certified copy.
3. A death certificate for the person or a replacement of the certificate.
4. A certified copy of a registration of death for the person or a replacement for the certified copy.

(2) The following are the conditions for when a fee is not payable by the applicant with respect to any of the marriage or death documents described in subsection (1):

1. The applicant applied for the document by submitting an application on the website on the Internet that the Registrar General maintains for the purpose of receiving the application.
 2. If the marriage document is described in paragraph 1 or 2 of subsection (1), then at the time that the Registrar General received the application for the marriage document, the marriage had been registered with the Registrar General on or after January 1, 1991 under the Act and the registration is available in electronic format.
 3. If the death document is described in paragraph 3 or 4 of subsection (1), then at the time that the Registrar General received the application for the death document, the death had been registered with the Registrar General on or after January 1, 1991 under the Act and the registration is available in electronic format.
 4. The Registrar General is satisfied that the applicant was entitled under the Act to apply for the document.
 5. The application for the document was complete and accurate at the time that the Registrar General received the application.
 6. In the case of an application for premium issuance of the document, the applicant applied for the Registrar General to deliver the document to an address in Canada.
 7. The Registrar General did not, within 15 business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for regular issuance of the document, prepare the document that the applicant applied for and send it to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application.
 8. The Registrar General did not, within five business days of receiving the application, in the case of an application for premium issuance of the document, prepare the document that the applicant applied for and make an attempt to deliver it to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.
 9. The applicant who applied for the document has applied for a refund of the fee paid for the document by submitting an application on the website on the Internet described in paragraph 1 by no earlier than 16 business days after the Registrar General received the application and no later than 30 business days after the Registrar General either:
 - (a) sent the regular issuance document to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application, or
 - (b) delivered the premium issuance document to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.
 10. The application for the refund was complete and accurate at the time that the Registrar General received the application.
- (3) This section does not apply if, for the reasons of impairment specified in section 4, the Registrar General did not,
- (a) within 15 business days of receiving an application for regular issuance of a document described in subsection (1), prepare the document and send it to the applicant at the applicant's address set out in the application; or
 - (b) within five business days of receiving an application for premium issuance of a document described in subsection (1), prepare the document and make an attempt to deliver it to a person at the applicant's address set out in the application.

Impairments

4. For the purposes of subsections 2(3) and 3(3), the following are the reasons specified if they impair the ability of the Registrar General to comply with the applicable one of those subsections:

1. Lack of hydro-electric power in the ministry of the Registrar General.
2. Major failure in a technological system in the ministry.
3. Labour disruption in the ministry of the Registrar General or in any service that the Registrar General uses to deliver or send a document to comply with the applicable one of subsections 2(3) and 3(3).
4. Natural disaster.
5. Any other factor beyond the reasonable control of the Registrar General.

Response of Registrar General

5. (1) On receiving an application under subsection 2(2) or 3(2) for a refund of fees, the Registrar General shall, within a reasonable period of time, determine whether the applicant is entitled to the refund and,

- (a) make the refund to the applicant, if the Registrar General determines that the applicant is entitled to it; or
- (b) notify the applicant that the applicant is not entitled to the refund, if the Registrar General so determines.

(2) The determination that the Registrar General makes under subsection (1) is final and binding.
