Notice of Minister of Health and Long-Term Care

UPDATE TO NOTICE OF PROPOSED REGULATION

Personal Health Information Protection Act, 2004

On February 4, 2017, the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care (Ministry) posted a notice of a proposed amendment to O. Reg. 329/04 under the Personal Health Information Protection Act, 2004 (PHIPA) in Volume 150, Issue #5 of the Ontario Gazette. Based on preliminary feedback and analysis, the Ministry has decided to update the proposed draft amendment and post the update to the Ontario Gazette. The update is provided below.

The intent and description of the proposed regulatory amendment remains the same and would prescribe each LHIN as a health information custodian and a single health information custodian with respect to all of its functions. This clarification would allow the LHINs to continue to carry out the health care functions that CCACs currently do and ensure that the LHINs are subject to the highest standard of privacy protection under PHIPA when they are handling personal health information.

Consistent with current CCAC privacy authorities, the proposed regulatory amendment would allow a LHIN to rely on assumed implied consent to collect, use or disclose personal health information for providing or assisting in providing health care to individuals, unless it is aware that consent has been withheld or withdrawn for this purpose.

The 60-day consultation period remains open until April 4, 2017 and the ministry welcomes written comments on the updated proposed amendment. All comments and submissions received during the comment period will be considered during final preparation of the regulation. The content, structure and form of the proposed regulation is subject to change as a result of the comment process in the discretion of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, who has the final decision on the contents of any regulation.

Avis du ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée

MISE À JOUR DE L'AVIS RELATIF AU RÈGLEMENT PROPOSÉ

Loi de 2004 sur la protection des renseignements personnels sur la santé

Le 4 février 2017, le ministère de la Santé et des Soins de longue durée (le ministère) a publié un avis relatif à une modification proposée au Règl. de l'Ont. 329/04 pris en application de la Loi de 2004 sur la protection des renseignements personnels sur la santé (« LPRPS »), dans le volume 150, n° 5, de la Gazette de l'Ontario. Compte tenu des commentaires préliminaires et de l'analyse, le ministère a décidé de mettre à jour le projet de modification proposé et de publier cette mise à jour dans la Gazette de l'Ontario. La mise à jour est présentée ci-dessous.

L'intention et la description de la modification réglementaire proposée demeurent inchangées; elles prescriraient chaque RLIS comme dépositaire de renseignements sur la santé, et comme seul dépositaire de renseignements sur la santé à l'égard de toutes ses fonctions. Cette clarification ferait en sorte que les RLIS puissent continuer à exercer les fonctions relatives aux soins de santé que les CASC exercent actuellement, et permettrait d'assurer que les RLIS sont assujettis aux normes les plus élevées en matière de protection de la vie privée en vertu de la LPRPS lorsqu'ils traitent des renseignements personnels sur la santé.

Conformément aux pouvoirs actuels des CASC en matière de protection de la vie privée, la modification réglementaire proposée permettrait à un RLISS de s'appuyer sur la présomption de consentement implicite pour recueillir, utiliser ou divulguer des renseignements personnels sur la santé dans le but de fournir ou d'aider à fournir des soins de santé à des particuliers, sauf s'il sait que le consentement a été expressément refusé ou retiré.

La période de consultation de 60 jours demeure ouverte jusqu'au 4 avril 2017, et le ministère recueille les commentaires écrits sur la modification proposée mise à jour. L'ensemble des commentaires et des propositions reçus au cours de cette période seront pris en considération lors de la préparation finale du règlement. Le contenu, la structure et la forme du règlement proposé peuvent changer en raison de la période de commentaires, et ce, à la discrétion du lieutenant-gouverneur en conseil, qui prend la décision définitive relativement au contenu de tout règlement.
